

Name: _____

Date: _____

8th Grade

SUMMER READING

Incoming 8th Graders will read either The Night Raven by Johan Rundberg or The Traitor's Game by Jennifer Nielson (Your choice). Students may select a minimum of 5 assignments from the chart below to complete by the new school year.

Re-imagine a scene from the book in Comic-Strip form.	Create a list of interview questions you'd like to ask the author.	Re-write a scene from the book from another character's perspective.	Create your own wordsearch puzzle using important words from the book.	Re-design the cover of the book.
Write a poem in response to one of the books you read.	Create a playlist for a specific character in the story & explain each song choice.	Find at least one simile in the story & explain its meaning.	Create a timeline that includes 5 main events from the text, in order.	Write a book review and rate the story out of 5 stars.
Write a five sentence summary of the text.	Write three multiple choice questions & answer key.	YOUR OWN CHOICE	Select a new word you learned from the text and create a frayer model for it.	Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of the characters.
Discuss what details you wish the author would have included more/less of in the text.	Write a brief sequel to the text.	Pretend you are casting actors to play characters from the story, pick your cast and explain your choices.	Draw a map of important locations in the setting.	Imagine an award the book would win? What would it win and for what reason?
Write a reflection on what you've learned from the text. (5 Sentences)	Find an allusion in the book and explain how/why it was used.	Re-imagine the title of the novel, what title would you give it and why?	Research the author and write a short report on who they are.	Create a song based on inspiration from the book.

Name: _____

Date: _____

7th Grade

SUMMER READING

Incoming 7th Graders will read either More Freaky Space Stories by Eric Keppler or Once Upon a Space-Time! by Jeffrey Brown (Your choice). Students may select a minimum of 5 assignments from the chart below to complete by the new school year.

Re-imagine a scene from the book in Comic-Strip form.	Create a list of interview questions you'd like to ask the author.	Re-write a scene from the book from another character's perspective.	Create your own wordsearch puzzle using important words from the book.	Re-design the cover of the book.
Write a poem in response to one of the books you read.	Create a playlist for a specific character in the story & explain each song choice.	Find at least one simile in the story & explain its meaning.	Create a timeline that includes 5 main events from the text, in order.	Write a book review and rate the story out of 5 stars.
Write a five sentence summary of the text.	Write three multiple choice questions & answer key.	YOUR OWN CHOICE	Select a new word you learned from the text and create a frayer model for it.	Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of the characters.
Discuss what details you wish the author would have included more/less of in the text.	Write a brief sequel to the text.	Pretend you are casting actors to play characters from the story, pick your cast and explain your choices.	Draw a map of important locations in the setting.	Imagine an award the book would win? What would it win and for what reason?
Write a reflection on what you've learned from the text. (5 Sentences)	Find an allusion in the book and explain how/why it was used.	Re-imagine the title of the novel, what title would you give it and why?	Research the author and write a short report on who they are.	Create a song based on inspiration from the book.

Name: _____

Date: _____

6th Grade

SUMMER READING

Incoming 6th Graders will read either Peter Pan and Wendy by James Matthew Berry or I Survived the Shark Attacks of 1916 by Georgia Ball (Your choice). Students may select a minimum of 5 assignments from the chart below to complete by the new school year.

Re-imagine a scene from the book in Comic-Strip form.	Create a list of interview questions you'd like to ask the author.	Re-write a scene from the book from another character's perspective.	Create your own wordsearch puzzle using important words from the book.	Re-design the cover of the book.
Write a poem in response to one of the books you read.	Create a playlist for a specific character in the story & explain each song choice.	Find at least one simile in the story & explain its meaning.	Create a timeline that includes 5 main events from the text, in order.	Write a book review and rate the story out of 5 stars.
Write a five sentence summary of the text.	Write three multiple choice questions & answer key.	YOUR OWN CHOICE	Select a new word you learned from the text and create a frayer model for it.	Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of the characters.
Discuss what details you wish the author would have included more/less of in the text.	Write a brief sequel to the text.	Pretend you are casting actors to play characters from the story, pick your cast and explain your choices.	Draw a map of important locations in the setting.	Imagine an award the book would win? What would it win and for what reason?
Write a reflection on what you've learned from the text. (5 Sentences)	Find an allusion in the book and explain how/why it was used.	Re-imagine the title of the novel, what title would you give it and why?	Research the author and write a short report on who they are.	Create a song based on inspiration from the book.