SUMMER READING

Directions: Students will choose ONE book to read. Either "The Magic Eraser" by Aaron Starmer, or "I Survived the Shark Attacks of 1916" by Georgia Ball.

Complete 4 of the following activities and submit the first week of school!

Write a report about a book you read. Include the title, main characters, and your favorite part.	Re-design the cover of the book.	Write a script for a 5-question interview between you and your favorite character from the book.	Imagine an award the book would win? What would it win and for what reason?
Write a brief sequel to the text.	Draw a comic strip depicting your favorite scene, dialogue, or chapter from the book.	Research the author and write a short report on who they are.	Identify the theme of the book. Support your choice by detailing three specific scenes from the text.
Find 10 new vocabulary words in your book. Define them and use each in a sentence.	Create a song based on inspiration from the book.	Design a social media profile page for a main character, including their bio, recent posts, and comments.	Draw a map of important locations in the setting.
Curate a 5-song playlist for the book, explaining in a paragraph why the lyrics or mood match the character or plot.	Create your own wordsearch puzzle using important words from the book.	Illustrate a timeline with 5 major events from the plot, including a short description and visual for each.	Rewrite the ending of the novel, explaining how the story changes for at least two main characters.
